

Internet that draws in

Marketing Information Site

We are innovators in adopting internet technology and are convinced that even small businesses can gain reputation and cost effective distribution through their websites. We ensure that your internet site fits into your overall marketing strategy and are congruent to your communications plan.

What we do:

- Write first draft of site for your approval
- Match images and words to project your corporate style
- Link to related sites
- Ensure new communications strategies are attached as your business grows
- Design electronic fliers and brochures
- Place your image material only
- Create interactive forms
- Plan and design electronic newsletters
- Program online publications
- Attach database and search facilities
- Attach shopping carts
- Online retail sites
